THE CRITICS ARE RAVING

"A unique adaptation of Lewis Carroll's timeless classic."—THELONDONER.CA on Alice in Wonderland

"Zarr and Dupuis' production for the Canada-based Voices in the Wind Audio Theatre was notable for its lack of sentimentality: despite the happy ending, they emphasized the significance of Christmas as the time of year when individuals should take a long hard look at themselves and consider whether they need to reform. Would that everyone could follow Scrooge's example." — RADIO DRAMA REVIEWS ONLINE on A Christmas Carol
